Since 2010, the Etxepare Basque Institute has been working to enhance the international presence and visibility of the Basque language and contemporary Basque creativity, to promote international cooperation and to foster exchange and communication between creators, professionals, stakeholders and public institutions.

In collaboration with local and foreign stakeholders, they promote the Basque language, culture and creation at the international level in an effort to build solid relationships with other countries and cultures, thereby creating new opportunities. To this end, they facilitate information on Basque culture, promote international cultural exchanges and quality artistic activities, and encourage mobility of creators, artists and professionals in the sector, as well as teaching Basque language and culture.
