EUCLID provides a range of European and international information, research and consultancy services.

EUCLID also organises seminars and conferences in the UK and in Europe on European and international topics. EUCLID has undertaken research projects for the European Commission, the Council of Europe, European networks, the British Council and UK arts funding bodies and local authorities.

Geoffrey Brown, Director of EUCLID, is the UK's leading expert on EU funding. EUCLID was the UK Cultural Contact Point (CCP) for 11 years and was the lead partner in a successful Grundtvig application. Geoffrey has run over 150 CulturEuro seminars in the UK and across Europe, has prepared regular advice and guidance notes, and undertaken several research reports on EU funding. Geoffrey offers services to EU Culture programme applicants and projects; he can advise on your application and, for successful applicants, offer help to get your project started or to help you produce your final report.
