FELLINI Gallery

FELLINI Gallery

FELLINI Gallery Kyoto is located inside the ATO Hotel, an eco friendly boutique hotel offering residency and studios to the local and international artists. They are 3 minutes walk from the subway stop Sanjo Keihan along the Kamo river, and 5-10 minutes walk to Gion, Pontocho, Shijo, and Kawaramachi.

FELLINI Gallery was founded in 2008 in Shanghai, China by an award-winning film producer and art lover. Inspired by the works of the legendary Italian film director Federico Fellini, FELLINI is destined to be an art salon where artists and art lovers can gather to exchange ideas and inspire progress. Spread over 4 stories in a European style former residence in Shanghai's historic French Concession, FELLINI's exceptional location and dynamic roster of artists quickly brought it to the attention of the international art scene. The gallery's rapid success in Shanghai led to the creation of a second location in the new art capital of Europe: Berlin.

FELLINI Gallery's Berlin branch was located in the vibrant and multicultural Bergmannkiez in Kreuzberg, and maintained the spirit of the original Shanghai gallery by exhibiting breathtaking art in a vast, extraordinary space. FELLINI is now based in Kyoto, Japan.

FELLINI exhibits a wide range of work in the fine arts of painting, photography, sculpture, and performance as well as groundbreaking new media. FELLINI has strong connections to established artists and collectors in Los Angeles and China, while seeking to discover new talents in Kyoto and internationally. FELLINI specialises in artist exhibitions and promotion, art consulting, interior design, and lease-sale programmes. FELLINI holds regular events and collaborates with museums, chambers, libraries, and other international galleries.
