Film Education

In supporting teachers, Film Education gives pupils the opportunity to analyze and evaluate not only film but also a wide range of Media.

In addition to providing free educational materials, Film Education organizes training courses, conferences, workshops, seminars and events including National Schools Film Week.

Studies resources include film specific CD-ROMs and educational online resources, study guides, generic study guides and videos, plus new materials in digital video editing.

Film Education is a registered charity funded by the UK film industry.
