Centre for Contemporary Art Futura is a private non-profit institution in the Czech Republic funded exclusively by grant applications. It operates two large exhibition spaces and a residency programme in Prague, a renaissance Castle in Třebešice near Kutná Hora, with a collection of Czech and international contemporary art and a residency programme VARP NY, in collaboration with Art in General and Visegrad fund in New York, USA.

The FUTURA gallery is a 3-floor exhibition space with a total area of 1,000 m² located in Prague's Smíchov quarter. Works from numerous renowned and internationally respected artists from abroad as well as the Czech Republic have been presented there since 2003 in large collective and solo exhibitions.
