Hong Kong Independent Short Film & Video Awards (Ifva)

The festival is held every year in March

Categories: Asian New Force category: maximum running time of 30 minutes

Requirements: Any format

The Independent Short Film and Video Awards (ifva), hosted annually by the Hong Kong Arts Centre, has been actively promoting innovative creative media since 1995. In addition to supporting short film, video, and interactive media, ifva also organizes pre- and post-award activities to enhance public awareness of creative media and encourage media interaction. Committed to developing local indie talent, ifva seeks to break new ground and push the boundaries of innovation and creativity.
