Ind Blue

A non-profit making oriented film & video organization founded in 2003. It is a base for independent film/video lovers to learn and share on independent film/video arts.

Aims:

1. to enhance basic knowledge & skills on film & video arts of the public
2. to promote independent and art house film & video to the public
3. to encourage independent film & video production
4. to facilitate international cultural exchange among independents

Ind Blue is a brand new independent film & video base. It includes:-

* Learning Space

- Every season, we will organise basic workshops on film & video arts, teaching by experienced instructors. Such workshops as, film & video appreciation, DV production. On-line editing (Premiere), script-writing, film critique, basic animation, sound & music, acting, directing and so forth.

- We will tailor-make others workshops for schools and social service centers. (for details, please contact us)

* Screening Space

- We will organise screening programme regularly, showing local & international independent film & video, with discussions or workshops.

- * Sharing Space

- To provide a base for independents & youth for sharing ideas and resources.

- * Self-help Space

- To provide economical rental facilities of on-line editing and some basic facilities for independents.

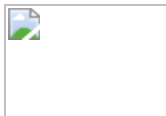

- * Distribution Space

- To promote local independent film & video to the public and International film & video festivals.
