Independent Film Foundation

The Independent Film Foundation is active in the promotion of the Polish film industry abroad. It co organize events with its regional neighbour – the Polish-Czech-Slovak Pavilion during the film festival in Cannes. It also took part in the Central European Scriptwriters Lab with other partners from Hungary and the Czech Republic. It also distributes the ORLY (eagles) award. It also helps in the organisation of international meetings such as the Audiovisual Forum supported by Media and UIP. It launched its own training such as the scriptwriters training for Eastern Europe – Script Tease.
