INSAS (Institut National Supérieur des Arts du Spectacle)

INSAS is an art college in the French community of Belgium. It specialises in theatre, cinema, radio and television courses. It is based in Brussels and was founded in 1962 by Raymond Ravar, André Delvaux and Paul Anrieu.

INSAS is a small school in relation to many other film and theatre schools. The number of students is between 10 and 15 per class which provides a direct and personal approach between teacher and student. The teachers are professionals from the world of cinema, television and theatre and they from Belgium as well as from abroad. The admission is subjected to the success of the entry tests.
