inter arts

Founded in 1995 in Barcelona, INTERARTS is a private agency with international projection.

From its headquarters in Barcelona, INTERARTS carries out its international activity through and with an extensive network of partner organisations and professionals. They have offices in Lima, Peru and Pristina, Kosovo.

INTERARTS has the following aims:

- to advise in the design of cultural policies
- to contribute to the processes of development through the cultural sector
- to facilitate the transference of knowledge and information in the field of culture

INTERARTS operates in full and open competition systems. They design proposals that they submit to calls for proposals or tenders, by both public and private entities. INTERARTS does not receive operating support from either private or public funds. They are not-for-profit and define themselves, equally, as a non-governmental organisation and/or a civil society organisation.
