International Federation of Photographic Art

The International Federation of Photographic Art supports the promotion of photographic art under all its aspects and by all kinds of photographic events.

La FIAP was founded by DR. M. Van de Wijer, who has established links between different national photographic associations through the world, since 1946. The first Congress, the official act of the fondation of FIAP, took place in Bern (Switzerland) in 1950, with the participation of delegates from 10 countries.

The FIAP is an international federation which affiliates as operational members, the national associations of photography. FIAP counts more than 85 national associations in the five continents and represents the benefits of nearly one million individual photographers. Since September 2004, camera-clubs and regional groups ouf clubs can join FIAP, under some conditions.

The official languages of FIAP are French and English. The official texts are also translated in German and Spanish.
