Japan Association Of Audiovisual Producers Inc.

Japan Association of Audiovisual Producers, Inc.eizou bunka seisakusha renmei (Former English Name: Japan Association of Cultural Film Producers, Inc.) is the sole officially authorized organization of short film producers in Japan.

First established in 1953 as the "Association of Educational Film Producers of Japan"kyoiku eiga seisakusha renmei, the organization responded to the changing needs of Japanese film producers, expanded on its content and membership, and changed to its former name in 1969. And it renamed to its current one by the reconstruction in 2000.

At present, 37 Full, 36 (production) + 31 (individual) Associate and 45 Supporting Members are active in the fields of education, culture, science, industry and communications through every genre of non theatrical productions.
