Kelab Seni Filem Malaysia (Malaysian Film Club)

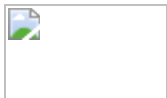

Kelab Seni Filem Malaysia is a non-profit film club based at HELP Institute in Kuala Lumpur, screening a year-round programme of international cinema. Admission is by membership with concessionary rates for students. With cooperation from the embassies, it also organises foreign film festivals and special retrospective programmes.

The film club provides strong support to local filmmakers, especially the independent filmmakers, through showcasing their work and promoting it at international film festivals. Besides film screening, the film club also organises filmmaking and film appreciation workshops and seminars. It acts as a referral point for local and foreign organisations seeking information and contacts on films and cinema generally and in relation to Malaysia.
