The Latvian Literature platform was established in order to promote recognition of Latvian literature and its distribution abroad, to ensure international cooperation among publishers, literary agents, writers, translators, and organisations working in the fields of literature and publishing. They provide a diverse array of information on Latvian authors, books, our publishing industry, and innovations within the industry.

They conduct the following activities:

- International Book Fairs
- Culture programme abroad
- Grant programme for translators and foreign publishers
- Work with translators
