Lietuvos Kino Studija (Lithuanian Film Studios)

Lithuanian Film Studios is a completely integrated production facility. Out of 20 departments in the studio, 12 are directly involved in providing film-making services.

Lithuanian Film Studios have achieved international success and recognition with the TV mini-series “Elizabeth I”, co-produced by Company Pictures (UK) and HBO (USA), which was shot entirely at Lithuanian Film Studios. The TV series has received one BAFTA award, three Golden Globes and nine Emmy awards in 2006-2007!
