Lithuanian Music Information and Publishing Centre

Music Information Centre Lithuania (MICL) is a non-profit NGO with the legal status of a public body. Its main function is the promotion of Lithuanian music both at home and abroad.

MICL, working with a clear focus to implement this goal, constantly collects, provides access to and disseminates comprehensive information on the musical culture of Lithuania, as well as putting out relevant material. In carrying out its activities, both within and outside Lithuania's borders, MICL covers the whole range of musical genres: jazz, experimental electronic music, (post)modern forms of folk and popular music, as well as older popular music from the interwar and Soviet periods (Lith. estrada), placing its main focus on Lithuanian contemporary art music and 20th century classical music.
