The Little Art

The Little Art is a non-profit arts education organisation that uses the medium of art to promote social values among children and young adults in Pakistan.

It is determined, through numerous artistic avenues, media in particular, to promote the principals and ideals of democracy, equality, civil rights, community, prosperity, higher education, religious and cultural tolerance and sustaining cultural heritage. It develops innovative arts education projects to engage children and young adults in alternative education and learning opportunities. It works with schools, universities, organisations, media houses and networks who share the same values.

It produces the Lahore International Children's Film Festival, Children's Performing Arts Festival, National Child Rights Arts Festival and ArtBeat – National Child Art Exhibitions annually.
