Mighty Sounds

The Mighty Sounds Festival is a unique 3-day music event, held annually in July near the Czech City of Tábor. The festival focuses primarily on punk and punk rock, rock'n'roll, hardcore, reggae, ska, rockabilly, indie rock and other styles of music that are derived from, or closely related to, these styles. One of the things that make this festival special is the large number of foreign bands that are present. More than 80% of the lined-up bands are from outside of the Czech Republic, including top Czech bands representing the above different styles of music.
