The Milena Principle

The Milena principle is a "think tank" with a global vision in which people from several European countries come together. The group is made up of artists and experts from various domains and disciplines including science, ecology, alternative health therapies, literature, art history, sound art and music, architecture, technology and philosophy. Acting as an independent art platform they distinguishing themselves by working on unconventional ways and by establishing unexpected and nomadic debates on art.

The Milena principle works as an nomadic European organisation and they realise art events in countries all over Europe. Within the projects of the Milena principle various international artists, writers, scientists come together and cooperate, create with a multi- and interdisciplinary attitude and reflect about the border crossing aspects of culture, art, science, ecology and health. One of the important aspects of the Milena principle members is their individual research in various fields such as art, philosophy and science. the Milena principle wants to invest in Human Capital.

The Milena principle organised a variety of artistic and cultural events connecting people throughout Europe since 2003. They built a network of international partners in more than 15 countries, including private persons, cultural institutions, universities and museums, all established through personal contacts. The majority of activities were realised on basis of voluntary work of their team and international partners, with no or little money nor governmental help.
