The National Academy of Performing Arts (NAPA) is Pakistan's foremost performing arts organisation, presenting world-class theatre and music programming and the country's only national arts academy educating students in theatre and music.

NAPA aims to be an institution of excellence that provides quality education, rigorous training, and is a catalyst for creative expression in the performing arts; a society that cherishes, respects, and encourages creative expression through the arts, especially the performing arts.

The plays staged by NAPA ranges from the classical, experimental, melodramatic to the modern. NAPA performs as many genres as possible in an attempt to introduce students and general audiences to the wide variety of theatrical genres available.
