National Cinema Centre (NCC)

Opened in 1998, the National Film Centre is a state-of-the-art film exhibition centre charged with the task of presenting a regular programme of both Vietnamese and foreign films, including both first-run and art films, and organising film festivals, seminars and other activities relating to the development of film in Vietnam. The venue comprises four auditoria: Cinema 1: a 420-seat film and video theatre; Cinema 2: a 200-seat film theatre; Cinema 3: a 100-seat film and video theatre; and Cinema 4: a 120-seat film theatre.
