National Institute of Performing Arts and Music

The National Institute of Performing Arts and Music (INAEM) – Dance.es is an autonomous body under the Ministry of Culture of Spain which has among its functions the promotion and dissemination of music, lyrics, choreography, theater and circus work. Its work on dance includes support for companies, associations, festivals, competitions, publications and the National Awards for the creation and interpretation of dance.

In Danza.es, created by INAEM, professionals can find all the information for their work; even the possibility of contact with other professionals to find work. The portal's aim is to promote and disseminate information to the general public but also to link professionals in the dance sector. It contains links to dance institutions, companies, artists and events, as well as publications, calls, and discussion forums.
