The gallery also has exhibited works by artists from other countries and organises talks, book launches, charity musical concerts and other events at its venue, comprising two floors with high ceilings. Works by various artists differ in medium, style and subject matter: watercolours, oils, mixed media, printmaking and etching, photography to textile, ceramic, sculptures and installation art.

The gallery's objective is to provide a platform for young and established artists to showcase their artworks and in doing so, continue the course of educating and furthering art appreciation amongst Malaysians.
