POSTMODERNISM

PostModernism Museum Association (PMMA), based in Bucharest, Romania, produces and promotes contemporary culture projects and develops cultural and visual arts research programmes. It is also a provider of consultancy services in cultural management and cultural strategies and policies.

Professional principles under which the Association works are transparency, accountability, confidentiality and long-term partnership.

The Association, as a producer and promoter of contemporary culture, creates programmes and projects of art history, anthropology, art and culture and travels them through and to different institutional partners.

It also leads the development of PostModernism Museum, a private museum platform, a resource and education centre and a research publishing house. PostModernism Museum is an organisation in the service of present society and of its development, and open to the public, which researches, communicates and exhibits, for purposes of study, education and eniovement.

The Association, as a provider of consultancy services in cultural management and policies, prepared and delivered the first Cultural and Creative Strategy of Bucharest (2015–2025), a project initiated by Arcub – the Bucharest Centre for Cultural Projects in 2014. Members of the Association coordinated, during 2018-2019, a cultural policy proposal concerning the status of the artist in Romania. It also unfolds trainings and consultancy sessions to cultural industries individuals in Romania through its platform Formare Culturală.
