Puchon International Fantastic Film Festival (PiFan) is the fantastic film festival showcasing a terrific range of alternative films in the genre of science fiction, fantasy, and horror from all around the world. Since its first edition in 1997, PiFan has been introducing more cutting-edge films leading films' success in Korean market and helping Korean films meeting the international circuit, also established itself as an important forum for diverse spirits of filmmakers and moviegoers. PiFan held in Puchon, one of the satellite cities of Seoul famous for its strong support for film and animation industry, is also famous for enthusiastic film fans: around 65,000 audience a year. PiFan is the supporting member of European Fantastic Film Festival Federeation.

With more and more film personnel, audience, and journalists coming, PiFan is a strong festival for the film professionals to meet each other and get the information as well as for the audience to meet diverse films.

PiFan is supported by the Ministry of Culture and Tourism, Gyeonggi-Do, Puchon City, Korean Film Commission, and Korean Film Archive. Also PiFan is the supporting member of European Fantastic Film Festival Federation.
