Research and Publication Centre

The Research and Publication Center (RPC), at the National College of Arts Lahore publishes literature and reference material relevant to Pakistan. It is a platform for the promotion and analyses of art, architecture, design and other disciplines of humanities and social sciences.

The Center also provides research facilities to encourage and enable independent and collaborative research and publish projects with other universities and institutes. RPC has initiated numerous research and documentation projects to map the Art, Architecture, and Design landscape of the country. The RPC organises occasional lecture series, seminars, and national and international conferences on important contemporary issues in art, architecture, design, education, religion, Sufism, modernity, history, politics of conflict, etc. Eminent scholars, academicians, artists and professionals are invited to these lectures and conferences to present their ideas.
