Romanian Association for Performing Arts

The Romanian Association for Performing Arts (ARPAS) was founded in 2011 with the aim to promote, stimulate and contribute to the diversification of the contemporary live art through cultural exchanges within the performing arts sector between Romania and the world. ARPAS is also the publisher of the performing arts magazine Scena.ro and coordinates a book series dedicated to performing arts, published with support from the National Theater in Timisoara. ARPAS constantly works to intermediate international cultural exchanges – concerts, lectures, and panel discussions.
