Salonul de Proiecte

Salonul de proiecte is a curatorial programme initiated in 2011 by Magda Radu and Alexandra Croitoru. The programme focuses through exhibitions, presentations and debates on the Romanian contemporary art, while positioning young artists' productions into a broader context, local as well as international. Between 2011 and 2015 Salonul de proiecte was located within MNAC Anexa and was supported by the National Museum of Contemporary Art in Bucharest.

Since the fall of 2015 the program functions exclusively through the Salonul de proiecte Association.
