School of Critical Thinking

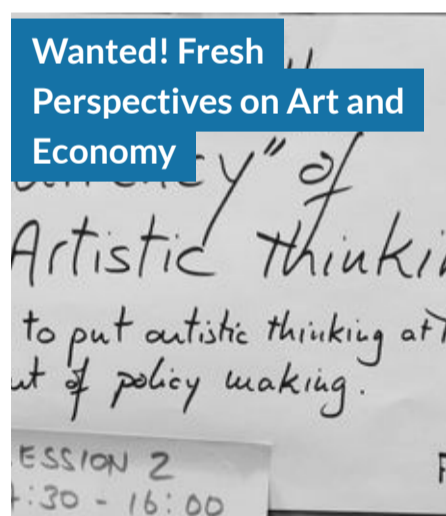

6 Assagao Events is creating a pro-active and pragmatic community with socio cultural events such as documentary/art house/independent cinema screening and discussions, artists presentations, lecture demonstrations on various subjects, acoustic music, book launches, magnet theatre, poetry performances, spoken word, talk shows, play readings etc, in Assagao, Goa.

The idea is to create a platform of information sharing on rights based issues, which reap stories that are attractive, new, artistic and also connect to contemporary issues, lives, and aspirations.

It is becoming a place to explore and strengthen connections between social activism and artistic practices. We are advocating an understanding of the arts as a language that empowers individuals and communities to utilize voice/stories as an agent for social change.
