Silpakorn University Art Gallery

Silpakorn University Art Center is located at Wang Tha Phra Campus. Established in 1979, it aims at promoting and disseminating knowledge and information about contemporary art.

The Art Center premises consist of two former royal buildings : the Grand Hall and the Pannarai Wing. Occupying a central location at this campus, it is Thailand's most prestigious art gallery. It holds art exhibitions and similar activities throughout the year, including three major national events : the National Art Exhibition, the Exhibition of Contemporary Art by Young Artists, and the National Ceramic Art Exhibition.

The Center has cooperated with other organizations in both public and private sectors in organizing art competitions and art exhibitions by foreign artists, annual exhibitions of students' art thesis as well as those of lecturers and professors in the fields of art and design. It also has embarked upon exchanges of exhibitions with foreign institutions. In accordance with its planned development, the Art Center will also function as an art information resource, both promoting artistic publications, CD-ROM, artistic workshops and also co-operating in joint-research with other institutions.

The Silpakorn Art Gallery hosts frequent shows by its students, faculty and alumni, as well as periodic shows by distinguished Thai artists. Admission to the art gallery is free.
