Slovak Performing And Mechanical Rights Society

Soza is a non-for-profit civic association operating as a collective manager and administrator of copyright. As such, it issues licenses to users of musical works authorizing them to use the musical works, it also collects royalties and distributes them to eligible rights holders.

Based on reciprocal agreements with counterparties, i.e. sister rights societies abroad it represents foreign rights holders in our territory and sister organizations represent our rights holders abroad.

The Soza's License department and Documentation, Distribution And Mechanical Rights Department are dealing with audiovisual productions.
