Slovenian Film Centre

Slovenian Film Centre, a public agency was established by the Republic of Slovenia. The goal of the Slovenian Film Centre is to encourage creativity in the film and audiovisual field in the Republic of Slovenia by creating suitable conditions for film, audiovisual and cinematographic activities. Slovenian Film Centre, a public agency of the Republic of Slovenia, became operational on 19 January 2011 as a successor of the Slovenian Film Fund – a public fund.

The Agency implements the national programme in the field of culture in the area of film and audiovisual activities as well as monitoring and analysing the state of its field of work. This includes overseeing, in cooperation with professional associations of authors and independent producers, the implementation and granting of acknowledgements and monetary prizes in the field of film and audiovisual activities in the Republic of Slovenia and ensuring the promotion and exploitation of film and audiovisual activities in the Republic of Slovenia and abroad.
