SOUND Cultural Foundation is a non-profit entity that aims at promoting artistic, educational, cultural and social projects. It is also affiliated with the International Federation of Choral Music (IFCM) and collaborates with the Romanian National Association of Choral Music (ANCR), Romanian Association of Choral Singing and other related organisations which have a common goal of improving the cultural, artistic, social and educational environment within the Romanian children and youth.

The Foundation's main goals are to promote the Romanian cultural identity by encouraging young people to embrace artistic fields that keep alive and develop the Romanian national traditions; to stimulate creativity within society by adopting a coherent and organised training system for children and youth between 3–18 years old and use the music, dance, visual arts and theater as tools to increase self-awareness and develop communication skills.
