St. Wenceslas Music Festival

The festival of sacred music takes place in the entire Moravian-Silesian region. St. Wenceslas Music Festival – Svatováclavský hudební festival is one of the most significant social and cultural events of the Moravian-Silesian region and it is also the largest festival presenting sacred music in the entire Czech Republic. Every year, the festival starts on 28th September (St. Wenceslas Day) and ends on 28th October (the establishment of Czechoslovakia).
