Tanec Praha Festival

The Tanec Praha International Festival of Contemporary Dance and Movement Theatre is one of the biggest events in the Czech cultural calendar. Every June since 1989, the festival showcases the diversity and quality of the current foreign and domestic dance scene, gives space for experimentation and crossover with other genres, and supports the emergence of new works as co-productions.

The programme, which addresses both the general and professional public (from children to the elderly), is structured into programme lines such as Event of the Season (essential groups and figures from the world dance scene at the opening and closing of the festival), festival co-production in international collaboration, Tanec Praha for children, dance news (space for young talents from the Aerowaves platform), Tanec Praha for students, Ven.ku Tanci (dance in public and non-traditional spaces) and others. The festival's programme offer is featured in multiple cities and municipalities, both indoors and outdoors.

The festival received its highest award for its 25th anniversary season in 2013, when it was ranked first in a competition of 235 European festivals in all genres in the EU Culture programme. In 2017, it became the only festival in the Czech Republic to win the EFFE (Europe for Festivals – Festivals for Europe) Award, for its extraordinary quality, engagement and impact of its work in the local context, and is again part of the EFFE Guide to European festivals.
