Te Papa Tongarewa is New Zealand’s national museum; located in Wellington it is a major international tourist attraction renowned for being bicultural, scholarly, innovative, and fun.

Commonly known as Te Papa or Our Place; the name Te Papa Tongarewa broadly translates as “the place of treasures of this land”.

Te Papa’s collections span five areas: Art, History, Pacific, Māori, and Natural Environment. Their exhibitions are interdisciplinary and interactive, and the museum hosts a range of dynamic events and education programmes. They also have thriving commercial enterprises, including a publishing division, conference operations, and retail stores.
