Established in February 2014, theatrethreesixty is a collective of playmakers dedicated to telling stories, by nurturing work from all walks of life, giving writers and actors safe spaces to experiment and grow to help pave the way for new Malaysian theatre.

theatrethreesixty's productions have been seen all over Malaysia and Singapore, having been featured at the Kota Kinabalu Arts Festival, the What About Kuching arts festival, the Kakiseni International Arts Festival, The Other Festival Ipoh, Festival Belia Putrajaya, Gerak Angin Virtual Arts Festival and the Causeway Exchange Festival, Singapore. They believe in the need to continuously develop the local performing arts audience community by providing them with this accessible experience to sustain our future projects in the community.
