Wandering Moon Performing Group and Endless Journey

Wandering Moon Performing Group and Endless Journey is a Chiang Mai-based theatre troupe works with minority children, promoting the reading of books and newspapers.

The performances of Wandering Moon are both contemporary and abstract. Sets of emotional songs are played instead of dialogue. Established informally in 1998 at a small town in Northern Thailand, contemporary shadow theatre is a science and art that is still experimental. Its mystery is still attracts people. The group is also known for their work in independent alternative media and experimental contemporary shadow works conducted to consider life, education, and humanism issues. Shadow plays and creative shadow – puppetry theatre workshops were designed and participatory programmed for all kind of people. Wandering Moon Performing Group and Endless Journey also provide services in helping with Alternative Media Development as a Tool, especially for shadow Theatre.
