ZeLIG

ZeLIG is an institution dedicated to training people in the documentary film sector. As such, it represents a focal point for students, teachers and professionals in an international context.

* Training in documentary film-making lies at the core of ZeLIG's many interests. The three-year, full-time course in documentary film-making is tri-lingual (Italian-German-English), with majors in camera/lighting, editing/post-production, and directing/project development;

* ZeLIG also offers a course for professionals in the social documentary field, ESoDoc, a European training initiative funded by the Media program;

* ZeLIG's continuous training efforts include courses for professionals held periodically;

* ZeLIG organizes conferences, debates, film series, and is involved in important projects and collaboration on an international level.
