

Bicof 2012 ICCA

(ICCA: International Children Comic Artist Awards)

International Children Comic Artist Awards, aka ICCA, is an international award for participants to interact with others and experience fantastic cultural exchanges on the concepts of comics. The pre-version of ICCA has successfully held in 2011, upon this remarkable success, the brand new 2012 ICCA will hold this year.

2012 ICCA consist of 3 different major programs, which are ICCA Online Call for pre-admission, Children Comics Workshop and the ICCA Comics Camp as a main program. ICCA2012 is full of enjoyments and has much greater scale than last year.

The entire artworks from pre-admission will be exhibited. Selected competitors for the main competition will gain their chance to join ICCA Comics Camp (2 day running). It will be a fantastic experience to work in perfect harmony with the international group.

ICCA is widely open to young comic artists who are ready to share international friendships. Show your creativity, learn from your favorite professional creators and grab your chance to take part in ICCA Comics Camp!
