

GLASGOW'S GREEN

IMAGINING A SUSTAINABLE CITY

Join Creative Carbon Scotland and Glasgow Arts for a day of free artist-led workshops and activities exploring how the arts can contribute to a more environmental sustainability city. Workshop themes will include food, textiles, urban ecologies, public space, architecture, circular economy and manufacturing.

Time: 10am–5pm

Date: Saturday 14th March 2015

Venue: Tramway

To sign up for workshops, and find out more, click here.

Due to the practical nature of the event, space is very limited and all workshops are ticketed, although free to attend. This event may be photographed and/or recorded for documentation and future promotional purposes. All children under 18 years old, and vulnerable adults, must be accompanied by a responsible adult.

With the support of the Culture Programme of the European Union

Culture