Content Partner for Malaysia:
The Asia-Europe Foundation (ASEF) promotes understanding, strengthens relationships and facilitates cooperation among the people, institutions and organisations of Asia and Europe. ASEF enhances dialogue, enables exchanges and encourages collaboration across the thematic areas of culture, education, governance, economy, sustainable development, public health and media. ASEF is an intergovernmental not-for-profit organisation located in Singapore. Founded in 1997, it is the only institution of the Asia-Europe Meeting (ASEM). ASEF runs more than 25 projects a year, consisting of around 100 activities, mainly conferences, seminars, workshops, lectures, publications, and online platforms, together with about 125 partner organisations. Each year over 3,000 Asians and Europeans participate in ASEF's activities, and much wider audiences are reached through its various events, networks and web-portals.

culture360.ASEF.org is a portal initiated by the Asia-Europe Meeting (ASEM) and managed by the Culture Department at the Asia-Europe Foundation (ASEF). culture360.ASEF.org aims to stimulate the cultural engagement between Asia and Europe and enhance greater understanding between the two regions. Created for and fuelled by artists, cultural practitioners and policy makers, culture360.ASEF.org is your platform to inform, exchange ideas, interact and collaborate with the arts and cultural communities across Asia and Europe. As a reference tool, and a place for dialogue, this exciting portal will take cultural cooperation between Asia and Europe to a whole new level.

This publication was produced with the financial support of the European Union. Its contents are the sole responsibility of ASEF, ASEF’s partner organisations and do not necessarily reflect the views of the European Union.
Mobility Funding Guides: the story so far

Since 2012, the Asia-Europe Foundation (ASEF) has published a series of Mobility Funding Guides for 51 countries in Asia and Europe\(^1\), available on ASEF’s arts portal culture360.ASEF.org, with the European mobility network On the Move (OTM). These Guides, updated regularly, provide a comprehensive list of funding resources for the international mobility of artists and arts professionals.\(^2\)

From 2018, ASEF has initiated a new approach for the Asian Guides that is involving local content partners in the research process. The 2019 edition of the Guide to Malaysia (the 5th edition since 2012) has been researched and updated by Cendana\(^3\) (Cultural Economy Development Agency, Malaysia). It lists international, national and local resources, both public and private in most artistic and cultural disciplines.\(^4\) The Guide also lists a few additional national sources of funding open only to the Malaysian sector.

The international approach of the Mobility Funding Guides has been crucial in positioning the discussion on funding for cultural mobility in a global perspective, in order to better respond to local needs and interests from the cultural sector. It also serves as a tool for funders and policy makers to identify areas that still need to be funded and/or supported in Asia and in the rest of the world. In this regard, the Mobility Funding Guides have been recognised by UNESCO in its 2018 Global Report as a "comprehensive and updated list [...] for the cultural mobility of artists and cultural practitioners in Asia and Europe".\(^5\) Further, by providing free access to these series of country-focused guides on culture360.ASEF.org, ASEF contributes to the pursuit of the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs).\(^6\)

ASEF would like to thank its long-term partners who have contributed to the Asian editions of these Guides since 2012: On the Move, Arts Network Asia (ANA), Korea Arts Management Service (KAMS), Japan Center, Pacific Basin Arts Communication (PARC), and Tokyo Performing Arts Market (TPAM).

This Guide attempts to gather all the available online resources in one document and is by no means exhaustive. We invite you to send any comments or suggestions to: culture@asef.org
