The Festival is organised in 6 sections: Official Section, Panorama Section, Netpac Section -to contest-, Discoveries Section, Special Section and “Retrospective” Section, which will be devoted to the film-maker Hsiao Hsien-Hou and there is also a short film programme.

Casa Asia continues working on the consolidation of the Festival with a more and more extense and geographically diverse programme with 25 Asian countries represented this year. For the Director of AFFBCN, Menene Gras Balaguer, the Asian Film Festival. Barcelona, as a festival specialised in Asian cinema, aims to become a international reference contest and a bridge between other festivals that have a relevant Asian presence in their programme such as Cines del Sur (Granada), Gijón Film Festival, Sitges International Fantasy Film Festival and San Sebastian Film Festival.
