Call for experimental film entries for DA Fest - International Digital and Electronic Art Festival, held in Sofia, Bulgaria in September 2010.

DA Fest launches a call for experimental films for its international screening programme.

We will consider all genres and styles, that show new voices and new perspectives, including experimental film and video, art film, animation, etc.

Films should be up to 20 minutes in length.

The deadline for submission is May 30 2010.

The 2010 festival is to take place from 13 to 17 September 2010, and aims to present current contemporary trends and practices in the digital arts in an ambitious 5-day programme.

To send us your film, choose one of three options:

- 1. upload the film with the online form (for digital files up to 50 MB)
- 2. send us a link where we can see your film online or download a preview
- 3. send a DVD with the film, by mail, to the address given at the bottom of the form.

Please, consider time needed for delivery. We need to have received the film by May 30 2010.

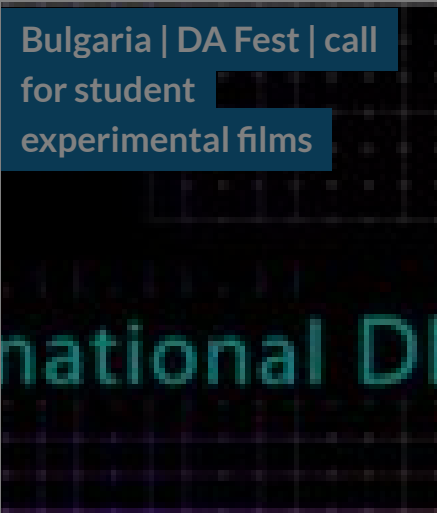

DA Fest is International Digital and Electronic Art Festival, organised by the National Academy of Art in Sofia, Bulgaria. The festival aims to present diverse trends and practices in the fields of digital film&video, sound art, net art, robotics, multimedia performances, installations and other interdisciplinary forms.

Festival mission is to build an environment that fosters the digital and electronic arts in art education and to create a platform for dialogue between artists, media activists, academics and students.
