TUO TUO Kulttuuri Tila [space for cultural cultivation] & Residency in Finland - call for applications. TUO TUO is now officially accepting applicants for our inaugural 2020 Residency program. The Residency is open to artists, writers, performers, researchers, therapists, activists, and myriad creative individuals.

Located two hours north of Helsinki, our refurbished schoolhouse – built in the late 1920s – offers studio/exhibition and outdoor space to artists, activists, and progressive thinkers, as well as fully-equipped lodging and gathering spaces for collaborators and guests.

The program is self-directed, there are no requirements to produce work. Residents/ projects spanning Ecology art, Ecopsychology, Permaculture, and interactive public works (which include performance and sound projects) will be given priority acceptance.

Please feel free to email with any questions: tuotuoarts@gmail.com

Residents can stay 1-3 months.

Application deadline [Extended]: 31 May 2020

Every resident receives a private bedroom within the main house as well as a designated work space/ studio. Artists with similar environmental and conditional requirements will be hosted together for synergy and ease. Conditional criteria covers preferential aspects such as digital technology use, silence and interaction, structure and critique, as well as more granular considerations.
