ITALY | Inteatro Festival Academy residency opportunity

DEADLINE
19 MAR 2012

IF - Inteatro Festival Academy in Polverigi, Italy is a program of research and professional training giving the opportunity to young performers to work with established artists of the international theatre and dance scene to develop their practice.

In its seventh edition, IFA proposes a period of creative residency from April the 2nd to June the 23rd, with three guest artists - Geraldine Pilgrim, Gustavo Frigerio, Claudia Dias - who will join the program as mentors, to help the participants in developing their own projects.

A selection of these projects will be presented at the showcase IFA Festival (Polverigi, June 21st > 23rd), to which will be invited professionals, critics, festival directors, to provide participants with maximum exposure and opportunities for future work. Moreover, among the proposals submitted, three can be inserted in the festival Danza al Museo (October > December 2012, in the museums of Marche region).
