SGIFF from Singapore International Film Festival offers two film grants for Southeast Asian film projects. Applications are open. These grants are dedicated to supporting filmmakers with compelling stories to tell across both fiction and non-fiction genres.

The Tan Ean Kiam Foundation-SGIFF Southeast Asian Documentary (SEA-DOC) Grant supports the production and post- production of documentaries in Southeast Asia which tell engaging, urgent stories.

The grant is awarded to four mid- or feature-length documentaries annually: two production projects with a cash amount of S$30,000 each and two post-production projects with a cash amount of S$20,000 each.

The SGIFF Southeast Asian-Short Film (SEA-SHORTS) Grant aims to be a launchpad for the brightest upcoming names in filmmaking from the region.

The grant supports four short films annually, each with a cash amount of S$4,000 and post-production support worth S$4,000.

Submissions for the grants in the 2022 cycle are now open to 1 February 2022, Tuesday 23:59 (GMT+8).
Please refer to the submission guidelines and forms. Any submission received after the deadline will not be accepted.
