

Privacy Settings

We use cookies to optimize our website and our service.

- ☒ Functional
- ☒ Statistics
- ☒ Marketing

Save

Functional only

Accept all

COUNTRIES

ASIA AUSTRALIA

THEMES

CULTURAL POLICY
ECONOMY AND SOCIETY

DISCIPLINE

VISUAL ARTS

[caption id="attachment_4807" align="alignright" width="150" caption="35,000 Days in Asia (Publication by Asialink Arts on 14 years of the Asialink Arts Residency Program)"][/caption]

A series of essays published by Asialink in Australia, exploring how Australia's international relations are increasingly located in Asia rather than in the rest of the world. Check out Alison Carroll on 'Art and its Place in Australia-Asia Relations'

What are the challenges ahead? What are the opportunities for business, for greater cultural exchange, for Australia's role in the region?

In The Asialink Essays leading commentators explore key issues in Australia's engagement with Asia. Editors and Contributors.

DOWNLOAD pdf. Ignorance is Not Bliss: Art and its place in Australia-Asia relations by Alison Carroll

WATCH OUT on Culture360.org for more news, events and opportunities from Australia, New Zealand and Russia when they join ASEM in October 2010 and become part of the Asia-Europe Foundation's activity programmes.

Similar content

POSTED ON
25 JUL 2012

Finding a Place on the

POSTED ON
25 AUG 2014

A Journey Through

POSTED ON
25 SEP 2017

Asialink Arts launches

QUARTERLY ESSAYS ON THE PERFORMING ARTS

Alison Carroll and
Carrillo Gantner

Art

EPISODES 1-5

1

A person wearing a yellow t-shirt and patterned pants stands on a wooden bench in a gymnasium. The bench is part of a larger set of bleachers. The background shows a white wall and a dark ceiling.