Culture in Motion Association in Romania aims to create cultural projects to inspire action. We promote the values of dialogue, tolerance, volunteering and cooperation, cultivate openness to diversity and multiculturalism, support human rights, the sine qua non of any modern democratic society, and we assert that participation in the life of the fortress is not the exclusive attribute of the executive authorities. chosen, the obligation of citizens of the city - citizens, civil society. We want our projects to contribute to building and crystallizing the identity of the city and its citizens in order to facilitate the way forward.

Vision: Culture in Motion aims to become a source of inspiration for the community, a promoter of progress in the cultural field in Romania.

Mission: Culture in Motion aims to complement, enrich, diversify and develop cultural life in Romania by identifying and encouraging existing talent resources, and harnessing to the full potential of these and other cultural values available.

Values: Culture in Motion is based on creativity, innovation, professionalism.
