The Independent Theatre Council (ITC) is the UK's leading management association for the performing arts across the UK.

It includes organisations and individuals working in the field of drama, dance, opera and music theatre, mime and physical theatre, circus, puppetry, street arts and mixed media. ITC members are based throughout the UK and work extensively both nationally and across the world.

ITC is committed to providing members with a comprehensive package of advice services, training and professional development opportunities, and networking meetings. On the website there is a list of training courses as well as advice and information pertaining to numerous facets of work in the arts industry, such as copyright issues and employment laws. They also provide a strong voice for the UK performing arts sector – raising its profile and representing its interests with policy makers.
